

GRAND DUKE TRIES TO ASSASSINATE CZAR; WOUNDS EMPEROR IN HAND

ARMY MOVING SPREADING IN MANCHURIA

British Embassy Warns English Subjects to Depart From Russia.

TELEGRAPH IS STOPPED

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung writes this morning that one of the grand dukes of the imperial family attempted to assassinate the czar, forwarding to the czar a constitutional government. According to the dispatch the czar was wounded in the hand.

Which of the grand dukes made the attempt on the emperor's life, the dispatch does not say, but it is said that it was the grand duke Vladimir.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A dispatch to the Katholic Telegraph from St. Petersburg says that the government intends to mobilize all the conscripts, numbering 60,000.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Dec. 1.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says that a report has been received from a trustworthy source that Russia's Manchurian army has been entirely beyond control of the officers and that a severe mutiny has broken out.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The British embassy at St. Petersburg has sent to all the British consuls in Russia that it will send all British subjects who need help to return to England. Those who will remain in Russia will do so at their own risk.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The officials of the Commercial Cable Company today received the following cables:

"We are advised that deliveries of money at St. Petersburg have been stopped, and communication with Finland interrupted."

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—Fears that a general strike is spreading in Russia, and that the revolutionaries are preparing to take advantage of the situation, are being spread by the press. The possibility of a general strike is being seriously discussed.

Agitation in Germany.

The first definite indication that the government is being hampered in its financial operations today is in the form of an intimation to the numerous provincial officials that they will not be able to receive their salaries. The possibility of a general strike is being seriously discussed.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—The revolutionary movement in Russia is spreading rapidly. The German Socialists have decided to limit the popular agitation to the form of public demonstrations and processions. The agitation is being spread by the press.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—Treason has been discovered among the revolutionaries. The German Socialists have decided to limit the popular agitation to the form of public demonstrations and processions. The agitation is being spread by the press.

5,000 Killed in Battle.

The Russian today began to feel the effects of the general telegraph strike. With the capital city under martial law and isolated from the rest of the empire, with telephone messages from Moscow falling off the line, and the inhabitants of that city, with the nation among the troops in Manchuria, reacting at last against the government, and with the authorities at St. Petersburg and the czar in a panic, the situation is very serious.

KAISER IS TO LOOK DEATH IN FACE UNDER SURGEON'S KNIFE

German Emperor to Submit to Operation on Ear Which, if Unsuccessful, Means Death or Insanity.

BERLIN, Germany, Dec. 1.—All Europe is anxiously waiting for the result of the operation which is soon to be performed on the ear of the German Emperor.

THE KAISER AND SEAT OF TROUBLE THAT THREATENS HIS LIFE.

Photograph of a section made through the temple bone, showing middle ear and mastoid structure, prepared under the direction of Dr. Edgar M. Holmes, the famous aurist.

The tumor on the ear of the German Emperor is a very serious one. It is a growth of the middle ear, and is situated in the middle ear, between the eardrum and the ossicles. WEDDING JOINS BIG FURNISHES OF WEDDED JEWS

Miss Bernheimer Has Many Rich Gifts on Wedding
Daniel Guggenheim.

RUBIES AND DIAMONDS

By Boston American. Miss Bernheimer, No. 1 in the wedding of Miss Grace Bernheimer and Mr. Daniel Guggenheim, son of Daniel Guggenheim, two of the wealthiest families in the United States, perhaps the world, having the Rothschilds, were united.

It was at the home of Miss Bernheimer, No. 38 West Seventy-second street, that Miss Bernheimer performed the ceremony which united interests of such vast commercial wealth in this country. Only a few intimate friends, besides the bride and groom, were present, but the large double parlors of the Bernheimer residence were crowded to their capacity.

If it had not been for the fact that it was known to have been a different wedding and diamond wedding from the usual of the Rothschilds, the wedding of the Bernheimers would have been more interestingly interesting with the presence of the Bernheimers.

Miss Bernheimer, who is a Jew, was given over to a display of the jewels of the Bernheimers, which were of great value. The bride wore a large diamond necklace, a large diamond brooch, a large diamond ring, and a large diamond earring. The groom wore a large diamond watch chain, a large diamond fob, a large diamond ring, and a large diamond earring.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, and the bride and groom were married by the Rev. Mr. Guggenheim, who is a Jew. The ceremony was performed in the double parlors of the Bernheimer residence, which were crowded to their capacity.
